

RESOLVING YOUR COMPLAINT

We want to handle your complaint in the most efficient and professional manner possible. Here's a quick and easy step-by-step reference to ensure your concern receives the attention it deserves.

STEP 1: Start at the source

If a problem occurs, it is generally easier to check the facts and come to a resolution at the point where the problem originated. This may simply entail a quick telephone call. Our call center is available for you 24 hours a day at 1-888-414-3733. You can also reach our Customer Support Team by email at customersupport@directcash.net

If you are not satisfied with the response you get, ask to speak with the manager, team leader or senior officer present. They will have the authority to solve most problems immediately.

STEP 2: Escalate the complaint

If your problem is not resolved to your satisfaction with your first contact, we encourage you to escalate your complaint by telephone, mail, fax or email to the Customer Service Manager.

Payment Card Networks

The payment card networks will investigate complaints received and work with all participants to find an appropriate resolution within 45 days of receiving the complaint.

Contacting the Financial Consumer Agency of Canada (“FCAC”)

The FCAC supervises all federally regulated financial institutions to ensure that they comply with federal consumer protection provisions. It also educates consumers and monitors industry codes of conduct and public commitments designed to protect consumer interests.

These consumer protection provisions cover a variety of operating practices that directly affect clients. For example, financial institutions are required by law to provide consumers with information about their fees and complaint handling procedures.

Specific complaints made in writing will be assessed by the FCAC on a case-by-case basis to determine whether a federal consumer protection issue exists, and if so, what necessary action should be taken. Regulatory complaints should be submitted in writing:
